Originally built in 1928 by the noted New York architects Delano and Aldrich, this former Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. headquarters was re-imagined in 2004 as 476 luxury apartments. What was once the original bank floor is now a 10,000 square foot resident's lounge. Other building amenities include a 24 hour doorman and concierge service, a fully equipped fitness center, laundry room, and roof deck. Each apartment boasts high ceilings with large windows, elegant marble baths, and modern kitchen's with granite countertops, maple cabinetry and top-of-the-line appliances.
